GREETINGS!

SAS Savvy November Newsletter

SAS Savvy thanks all members and SAS users for their contributions!

During the holiday season, I like taking time to give thanks to all SAS Savvy members and SAS users for their contributions throughout the year.

Most recently, I am honored to serve as an Advisory Committee Member of SUGCDISC.

Feedback from the recent SAS Savvy training on Beyond Proc SQL: Dataset Vitals.

'Hi Sunil, Thank you for the interesting webinar. Could you kindly send me the 3 macros you showed during the presentation? Thanks', Anbu Damodaran

'Hi Sunil, It's very nice to come in contact to you through this webinar meeting and I would like to request you to share me the today's macros class documents to my mail. Thank you. Best regards', Madhu

Help spread the word about SAS Savvy. Missed the recent SAS Savvy Open House?

Watch the video recording now and see what's new.

To continue to navigate SAS Savvy, you can use the standard left side menu or the new Site Mind Map which should take you to each page.

SAS Job AidsSAS Programming TasksSavvy Resources

These are the three levels to fit all SAS programmers. I hope these levels make it easier to find SAS papers and tips to address your questions and needs. Let me know what you think. Remember, free SAS technical support is just an e-mail away.
