GREETINGS!

SAS Savvy October Newsletter

Now that Halloween is over, it's time to get ready for Thanksgiving!

Thanks to You - SAS Enthusiasts!

As I reach my four year anniversary with SAS Savvy, I am thankful for the great technology that SAS Institute provides to make my live easier, for TalentMine sponsoring the online monthly training sessions and for my great friendships within the SAS community. What started as a collection of tips has grown to a living knowledgebase of SAS and CDISC tips. It is a rewarding feeling to know that 'we are all in this together' in our search for knowledge and excellence.

New member quotes:

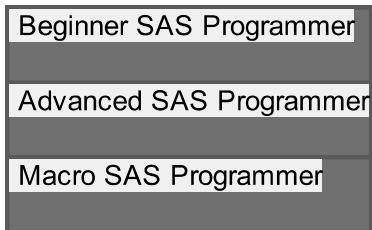

'Thanks for creating my profile with SASSAVVY.com. I really like this web site, very informative.', Seetha Talluri

Help spread the word about SAS Savvy. Missed the recent SAS Savvy Open House? Watch the video recording now and see what's new.

To continue to navigate SAS Savvy, you can use the standard left side menu or the new Site Mind Map which should take you to each page.

SAS Job Aids	SAS Programming Tasks	Savvy Resources
------------------------------	---------------------------------------	---------------------------------

These are the three levels to fit all SAS programmers. I hope these levels make it easier to find SAS papers and tips to address your questions and needs. Let me know what you think. Remember, free SAS technical support is just an e-mail away.

SAS Savvy Updates

Below are updates made in October. Cannot wait till the end of the month for updates? You can subscribe to free daily updates.

1. From the recent WUSS conference in San Diego, I added links to great SAS papers in these sections:
 - a. PROC COMPARE
 - b. PROC FREQ
 - c. PROC FORMAT
 - d. NEW SAS Programming
 - e. CDISC
2. See the two new mind maps I recently created for PROC FORMAT and Final Dataset Programming in the DATA Merge page.
3. On the CDISC page, I added two good papers on ADaMs and how to create tables from them.
4. On the PROC SQL page, I added a SAS paper comparing Proc SQL and DATA Step programming.
5. On the CDISC page, I added many SAS papers on SDTMs and ADaMs.
6. On the DATA Step Merge page, I added a good SAS paper on the Power of BY statement.
7. I just added the answer to this common FAQ - What is one method for always displaying to three significant digits?
8. On the Proc Format page, I added a paper to show techniques for zero filling tables when data is missing.

SAS Savvy Training

SAS Savvy training covers new SAS topics and requests. Please see the video recording if you missed the live session. Below is the schedule for the next training sessions. As always, please e-mail me your favorite topic.
